

Spreading seeds of service

Serving my community—one kind action at a time

In our K-Kids club, we have been discussing how we can spread the seeds of service in our school and community through random acts of kindness. Here's my drawing of an act of kindness that I have performed:

Carrying out this act of kindness for another person made me feel:

