

K-Kids

Contest Booklet

#95045

The following information describes K-Kids contest and award opportunities available to both individual members and the club. Review the contest criteria at the beginning of the school year. This will assist club members with planning a successful and productive year.

Please visit the K-Kids Web site at www.kkids.org to find the current year's contest themes.

Contest and award information has been divided into two categories, opportunities for individual club members and opportunities available to the club as a group.

A description, criteria checklist, and entry form are included for each contest or award within this packet. Below is a contest/award listing which includes a description of the items required for entry into each contest/award.

The Eliminate Project themed contest entries are highlighted in red.

Please read important information below:

- All contest/award entries should be submitted to the district administrator. Refer to the K-Kids Web site www.kkids.org for submission deadlines.
- All entries except scrapbook entries become the property of Kiwanis International. Scrapbooks will be returned in late August to the individual indicated on the Scrapbook Information Sheet adhered to the inside cover of the scrapbook entry. If not received the club should contact the appropriate district administrator.
- Signatures on the contest entry form grant permission for Kiwanis International to promote and publicize submitted materials in Kiwanis family publications and on Kiwanis family Web sites.
- The District Committee on K-Kids judges all entries and the district administrator mails district winners to Kiwanis International for international judging.
- Districts are encouraged to award appropriate recognition to contest finalists and provide additional recognition to district winners. A CD with certificate templates will be provided to district administrators for use in creating recognition certificates.

K-Kids Speech Contest

Theme: Visit the K-Kids Web site at www.kkids.org to find the annual Speech Contest theme. Or contact the Kiwanis International Office by phone, 1-800-KIWANIS, ext. #390 or by e-mail, kkids@kiwanis.org.

CONTEST RULES

1. K-Kids members wishing to participate in this contest should create a speech illustrating the designated theme, which is posted on the K-Kids Web site. The presentation must be original and completely developed by each participant. A written presentation must be submitted with the taped speech. The speech may be submitted in the following format: DVD.
2. Entries should be submitted to the district administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids selects the district recipient and submits the winning speech entry to the Kiwanis International office. Refer to the K-Kids Web site at www.kkids.org for submission deadlines.
3. The speaker must be filmed delivering his/her speech before a Kiwanis family group. Each speaker will be allowed a maximum of (4) minutes for his or her presentation.
4. Each speaker must be a member of a K-Kids club in good standing.
5. The decision of the judges is final and no changes or alterations will take place after the judges have certified the results.

PRESENTATION OF RECOGNITION

The district administrator will receive a CD with certificate templates to print, sign and present to K-Kid District Speech winners.

District Speech Contest winners should plan on presenting the winning speech before a group at a Kiwanis function, preferably the Kiwanis district convention, at which time the certificate is presented.

All K-Kids district speech winners will become K-Kids Ambassadors and are encouraged to speak at Kiwanis family events.

The overall first, second and third place K-Kids Speech Contest winners will receive a trophy from Kiwanis International. A trophy will be forwarded to the district administrator for presentation to the overall winner during a Kiwanis function.

- The following judging criteria will assist the K-Kids club participant with preparation of his/her speech and the district administrator with judging.

K-Kids Art Contest

Coloring book page

All K-Kids members are invited to participate in the K-Kids Art Contest. The purpose of the contest is to promote K-Kids clubs throughout the Kiwanis world. All entries shall become the property of Kiwanis International, and may be reproduced for publication, sale, and/or promotion of K-Kids and the Kiwanis family.

Who May Enter

Any member of a K-Kids club in good standing may participate.

Contest Theme and Art Specifications

Prepare a drawing which demonstrates the current K-Kids art theme (a coloring book page). There are two coloring book page themes, one is about K-Kids and one is about The Eliminate Project. Participants may enter in both theme categories. Both theme categories will be judged and awarded recognition. Each entry must be an original drawing created solely by the contestant. All entries must be 8 ½" x 11" in size. All entries shall become the property of Kiwanis International, and may be reproduced for publication, sale, and/or promotion of K-Kids and the Kiwanis family.

Deadline

Entries should be submitted for judging to the K-Kids District Administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids selects the district recipient for both the K-Kids theme and The Eliminate theme and submits the winning district entries to Kiwanis International. Please visit www.kiwaniskids.org for submission deadlines.

The contestant's name, age, mailing address, school, and sponsoring Kiwanis club information should be included with the entry (See contest Entry Form).

Presentation of recognition

The district administrator will receive a CD with certificate templates to print, sign and present to K-Kid District Art Contest winners. District winners should be invited to a Kiwanis function at which time the certificate of recognition is presented. If this is not possible the certificate is presented to the district winner at a K-Kids club meeting or mailed to the faculty advisor for presentation.

Art Contest Judging Criteria

- Presentation of theme (35 points maximum)
 - Is the main theme demonstrated in the artwork?
 - Can you identify the theme easily?
- Originality and Creativity (50 points maximum)
 - The drawing should not be copied from a picture, but should be an original drawing.
- Neatness (15 points maximum)
 - Did the artist take time to create the artwork and make an effort to wipe off excess paste or paint?

CHECKLIST

The following items must be submitted with this contest entry:

- Completed and signed entry form
- Artwork with K-Kids name, club and theme category printed directly on the back of the artwork
(Artwork should be 8 ½ x 11 inches in size or smaller.)

Kiwanis International Foundation's K-Kids Leadership Award Program

An opportunity to recognize outstanding leaders within K-Kids is available via the Kiwanis International Foundation's K-Kids Leadership Award program. This program offers each district K-Kids Leadership Award recipient a plaque and a US $100 American Express Check.

Rules

To be eligible for the award the nominee must be a member of a K-Kids club in good standing.

Each nomination packet submitted for consideration must include:

- A letter of recommendation written and signed by the K-Kids club faculty advisor.
- A letter of recommendation written and signed by a school administrator or official to indicate academic, behavioral, and social success.
- A letter of recommendation written and signed by an individual of the nominee's choice.
- A listing of Kiwanis-family activities attended by the nominee, including K-Kids club meetings, service and fund-raising projects, and interactions with the sponsoring Kiwanis club and other service organizations. The number of hours invested by the member in each activity listed must be indicated.
- A listing of all non-K-Kids club activities (such as church or religious organizations, Scouting, and organized athletics) in which the nominee participates. The number of hours invested by the member in each activity listed must be indicated.
- Include photographs of the leadership nominee in action!

Nominations should be submitted to the K-Kids district administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids selects the district recipient and submits the selected nomination to the Kiwanis International. Please visit the K-Kids Web site at www.kkids.org for submission deadlines.

Presentation of recognition

The K-Kids staff at Kiwanis International distributes a letter of congratulations, mock savings bond, and token of achievement to the district administrator to be awarded to the district's recipient.

The actual savings bond is mailed directly to the recipient's home address. When possible, a Kiwanis International Foundation representative, Kiwanis International Board Counselor, or K-Kids district administrator will present this recognition at the district's annual meeting.

KI Foundation Leadership Award Judging Criteria Checklist

Each nomination packet submitted for consideration for the Kiwanis International Foundation's K-Kids Leadership Award will be judged based on the following five sections:

- A letter of recommendation written and signed by the K-Kids club faculty advisor.
 - A letter of recommendation written and signed by a school administrator or official to indicate academic, behavioral, and social success.
 - A letter of recommendation written and signed by an individual of the nominee's choice.
 - A listing of Kiwanis-family activities attended by the nominee, including K-Kids club meetings, service and fund-raising projects, and interactions with the sponsoring Kiwanis club and other service organizations. The number of hours invested by the member in each activity listed must be indicated.
 - A listing of all non-K-Kids club activities (such as church or religious organizations, Scouting, and organized athletics) in which the nominee participates. The number of hours invested by the member in each activity listed must be indicated.
- Nominations should be submitted to the K-Kids district administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids will select that district's recipient and forward the selected nomination to the Kiwanis International. Please visit the K-Kids Web site at www.kkids.org for submission deadlines.

CHECKLIST

K-Kids Scrapbook Contest

RULES

1. Each K-Kids club may enter a scrapbook containing pictures, souvenirs, examples, newspaper clippings, etc. of its activities throughout the current academic year.
2. The K-Kids club members should create and complete the scrapbook.
3. Each scrapbook must be submitted to the district administrator. Please go to www.kkids.org to find entry deadlines.
4. The scrapbook must be divided into the following sections: service to school, service to community, fund-raising projects, assistance to Kiwanis family projects, and miscellaneous. Each category must be tabbed accordingly. The pages must also be numbered with a table of contents included at the beginning.
5. Entries may be submitted in a standard three-ring binder notebook, a scrapbook, or a homemade scrapbook. As long as some type of cover is holding the contents of the book, the entry will be accepted for judging. There are no size limitations, however, a large scrapbook is sometimes more difficult to take from place to place. When creating your scrapbook, think about all the possible ways the club might use the book and design your scrapbook with this in mind.
6. A completed scrapbook information sheet must be affixed to the inside front cover of the scrapbook.
7. The district administrator will submit the first place district winner to Kiwanis International. District Scrapbook winners will be kept during the summer and displayed at the K-Kids club exhibit booth during the Key Club, Circle K, and/or Kiwanis International conventions.
8. District Scrapbook winners will also be photographed and displayed on the K-Kids Web site.

PRESENTATION OF RECOGNITION

The district administrator will receive a CD with certificate templates to print, sign and present to K-Kid District Scrapbook winners. District winners should be invited to a Kiwanis function at which time the certificate of recognition is presented. If this is not possible, the certificate is presented to the district winner at a K-Kids club meeting or mailed to the faculty advisor for presentation.

K-Kids Club Single Service Award

The Club Single Service Award provides recognition to individual K-Kids clubs for their single best service project.

RULES

1. To qualify for this award the K-Kids club must be in good standing.
2. A qualifying club single service project is defined as a club service project, planned, organized and produced by the K-Kids club occurring on a single day or consecutive days, or recurring on different days. In the case of a recurring project, it is the same project that must be repeated for the purpose of achieving the same service goal.
3. Only activities conducted during the current school year can be submitted. If a school that meets year round submits an entry the club project could take place anytime during that club's year of operation. The same holds true for community based clubs.
4. Photos and newspaper clippings can be used to help explain the club's project.
5. Entries should be submitted on the provided entry form.
6. Entries are judged on the following criteria:

Service need	(10 points)
Project plan	(20 points)
Project implementation	(20 points)
Final results	(25 points)
Public awareness	(10 points)
Member impact	(10 points)
Additional information	(5 points)

7. Entries should be forwarded to the district administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids will select a first, second, and third place district winner. Only first place district winners will be forwarded to Kiwanis International.
8. Any entry may be disqualified for reporting incorrect or false information.

PRESENTATION OF RECOGNITION

The district administrator will receive a CD with certificate templates from which certificates can be edited, printed and presented to district winners. District winning entries should be displayed at the Kiwanis International District convention and the first place district winner should be invited to the district convention where presentation of the certificate will take place.

Kiwanis International will use Club Single Service district winning entries to promote the K-Kids program. This may entail publishing the winning project in Kiwanis family publications and/or posting to Kiwanis family Web sites.
