

“You don’t have to be brilliant to be a good advisor. But you do have to understand other people— how they feel, what makes them tick, and the best way to influence them.” Adapted from Leadership with a Human Touch

Has your K-Kids club benefited from the guidance, support, and enthusiasm of a faculty or Kiwanis advisor?

Has an advisor contributed to the success of your K-Kids club?

Have your advisors gone above and beyond their duties this year?

Recognize them with an Award of Recognition from Kiwanis International!
