Courage, Duty, Honor
The K-Kids collected food and packaged 30 bags. Each bag had enough food for a family of four people!
The Message in A Bottle project is a grassroots effort to recognize the extraordinary effort of our armed forces in current conflicts abroad. The United States has over 200,000 active military troops deployed to wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and many thousands more protecting American interests abroad. Many of us never take the opportunity to give a simple thanks to those dedicated and courageous men and women and their families.

A message in a bottle symbolizes hope. It is a simple personal message. We are asking that each participant write 5 words on a slip of paper that expresses a thought, feeling, or simply a thank you to the troops. Insert this message in a dry water bottle, close it, and place it in designated receptacles located throughout the city. The bottles with their messages are collected and processed. The words are recorded, analyzed for repetition, and posted to the home page of this site, displaying a collective message from all the people.

We participated in the Message in a Bottle Project. Each K-kids member filled one bottle with five encouraging words for our troops!
Thanks for Supporting our Club!

Go green with our favorite superheroes - the K-Kids!

We are planning a beach clean-up in the Vilano Beach vicinity from 9 am until noon on Saturday March 17, followed by a picnic at the North Shore Community Center. We hope our K-Kids along with their parents and brothers & sisters can come out and join us on this important community service project.

There is no charge for food. The Kiwanis Club of St. Augustine is sponsoring the picnic. We just need your help and support to make it a fun and successful day.

We’ll send home more information later. Just wanted you to be able to start making plans! Hope you can join us.

Spring Brings “Go Green” Cleanups

On St. Patrick’s Day the members of St. Augustine Cleanups over 75 youth and parents to Vilaano Beach to clean the beaches and streetscapes in Town Center. Kiwanis Club sponsored K-Kids and the Key Club at St. Augustine schools. Friends of A1A facilitated the beach-cleanup event for Debora Williams. Lori Heidt, other club volunteers and parents. The cleanup trek started with a brief talk on turtles at Surfside Park by Sonja Collins and then into actual cleanup on the beach.

Vilano resident biking friends, Eileen Kenney and Dave Cole, walked the beach through Town Center to the Nature Boardwalk identifying birds along the route. The group managed numerous bags of trash and were surrounded at the number of cigarette butts everywhere. The K-Kids are considering adopting beach sections to continue their community service commitments. Thanks to Jenny Wolfe, Wendy Thompson and Sallie O’Hara, the environmental message continues to be spread in the elementary school by Friends of A1A. This event followed a regional Girl Scout gathering at Copeahawk Elementary School on February 26, 2012 whose theme was Save the World. For more information about our Adopt A Beach Program, contact Vicki Ogden at 904-425-8091 or ogden@scenofl.com. We have 48% of our 72 miles adopted.
The K-Kids attended the St. Augustine Kiwanis club lunch meeting at Carabbas on March 8th. K-Kids president Riya Patel opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and led everyone in the K-Kids pledge. Each of the K-Kids officers was able to meet their counter part in the adult club. The speaker was from The Friends of A2A Beach who helped coordinate the whole Kiwanis club Beach Clean up event the following weekend.
