  - ii. Introduce advisor.
  - iii. Introduce guests.
- b. Icebreakers — Check out these ideas to kick off the meeting.

2. Old business

- a. Review current club projects.
- b. Determine what still needs to be done and make assignments.
- c. Visit other K-Kids meeting kits for ideas for service projects or club meetings.

3. New business

- a. Before the meeting, ask a few students to review the video resources and determine which one(s) to show to the full club.
- b. Showing gratitude to those around us is important. Hold a group discussion to decide where to target a “gratitude campaign” in the school and community. (Groups to consider: advisors, Kiwanis sponsors, local project partners, teachers, administrators, custodians, cafeteria and office staff, bus drivers, parents, first responders, military veterans, hospital staff, mail carriers and other delivery providers.)
- c. Review the list and decide which groups the club will recognize. Consider expressing appreciation to a different group each week or month. For school personnel, consider partnering with other school clubs. Don’t forget to thank Kiwanis sponsors, advisors and other local program partners.
- d. Discuss options for recognizing selected community groups. Refer to the project idea source list.
- e. Form a committee to plan the club project and set a timeline for activities. Don’t forget to approach other school clubs to partner on recognizing your selected school personnel.
