LEADERSHIP CORNER

District administrators, thank you for your service to the Kiwanis family! As you wrap up K-Kids year, we celebrate your support for advisors and students in your district.

We also appreciate all you do to help open new K-Kids clubs. Remember the resources Kiwanis International provides as you communicate with schools, organizations and Kiwanis clubs:

- Watch one or more of the 2023-24 webinars available to administrators on the K-Kids district administrator webpage.
- In email communications with school and organizational leaders, include links to the Start a K-Kids Club promotional video, K-Kids Member Guide and K-Kids Advisor Guide.
- Use the "What is K-Kids" presentation to interest Kiwanis clubs in sponsoring a K-Kids club.
- Reach out to the Service Leadership Programs staff at kiwaniskids@kiwanis.org to schedule a time to talk about the opportunities and challenges for growing new clubs in your district.

THIS YEAR'S AWARD RECIPIENTS

Congratulations to this year's award recipients, including distinguished K-Kids officers, advisors and clubs. In late May, club advisors with honorees will receive digital certificates by email and other recognition items by mail. K-KIDS SERVICE YEAR HIGHLIGHTS

From car wash fundraisers to food-bank packing, K-Kids clubs had a busy year! Check out just a few of the thousands of cool and effective service projects that K-Kids carried out — contributing time, talent and resources to their schools and communities around the world! Our thanks to clubs that submitted their annual achievement report and shared their service stories.

K-KIDS JOIN KEY CLUB ON TOY DRIVE

In Highland, Indiana, U.S., local K-Kids clubs joined the Highland High School Key Club and other Kiwanis family members for a toy drive — collecting over 700 items for hospitals, churches and more. The Key Club’s collaboration with its sponsoring Kiwanis club, along with Builders Clubs and K-Kids clubs, brought more happiness to more children. Read tips from the Key Club’s president, Lisa Marie Aumend, for developing Kiwanis family relationships.
